Automatic data collection technology 1.

We use automatic data collection technology in our applications. For example:

(1) Cookies (or browser cookies). Cookies are small text files set by the operator of a website or app to recognize your browser or device. We may use cookie technology on our applications to store and track information, such as the number and frequency of users, user distribution, and users' online preferences. Cookies do not capture information that can identify you, but the information they collect can help us analyze the use of the application to improve your experience. You can turn off cookies in your browser settings. However, this may affect the functionality of the app.

(2) Network analysis. Web analytics is a method of collecting and evaluating the behavior of visitors to web pages and mobile applications. This includes analyzing traffic patterns, for example to determine how often certain features of a website or mobile app are accessed, or to understand what information or services are of most interest to visitors. Our application uses web analysis services provided by third-party tools. 6. How we protect your information

(1) If we cease operations, we will promptly stop collecting your personal information, announce the notice of cessation of operations, and delete or anonymize your personal information held within a reasonable period.

(2) In order to protect your personal information, we will take data security technical measures, improve internal compliance levels, increase internal employee information security training, and set safe access permissions for relevant data to safely protect your private information.

7. Protection of Minors We have made the following special agreements to protect minors under the age of 18:

(1) Minors should use our related services under the guidance of their parents or guardians.

(2) We recommend that parents and guardians of minors should guide minors to use MangoTreesDao after reading this policy, the "MangoTreesDao Service Agreement" and our other relevant rules.

(3) MangoTreesDao will protect the confidentiality and security of minors' personal information in accordance with relevant national laws and regulations.

8. Disclaimer

(1) We cannot guarantee that third parties will take personal information protection measures in accordance with our requirements. You should choose and use third parties carefully and properly protect your personal information. We are not responsible for the privacy protection of other third parties.

(2) We will take reasonable security measures as much as possible under the current technical level to protect your personal information to avoid information leakage, tampering or damage. We transmit data wirelessly, so we cannot ensure the privacy and security of data transmitted over wireless networks. Any translated version of this Policy is provided solely for the convenience of users and is not intended to modify the terms of this Policy. If there is a conflict between the Chinese version and the non-Chinese version of this policy, the Chinese version shall prevail. This policy will apply from February 1, 2024.

For matters not covered in this policy, you must abide by our announcements and related rules updated from time to time.
